Celebrate Love

Family & Friends

We have come here today to celebrate love. This love is powerful enough to untie the strong entangled knot of life. It is a love which kindles our hearts with hope.

Address

(Groom) and (Bride) the moment has finally arrived. It seemed an eternity ago when you first thought about this day and now it is here. You have opened your hearts to one another and now will share and celebrate that love. Today many marriages end in pain, heartache and failure. Somehow we as a society have lost the respect for marriage and what it stands for. The wedding vows which are your recipe for a successful marriage are just words to some.

The bible teaches us that marriage is a permanent relationship of one man and one women totally committed to each other, friends, companions, lovers for life. We read from the holy gospel according to Mark:
